

Quantum Literature, Poetry & Consciousness Resonance

The background of the cover is a dark, textured space. In the upper left, there is a golden, complex geometric symbol resembling a quantum orbital or a Sri Yantra. In the center, a woman with dark hair, wearing a brown, textured garment, is shown from the chest up, leaning over a large, open book. She is holding a quill pen and writing on the left page. The right page of the book is filled with dense, handwritten text. To the right of the woman, a bright, glowing stream of golden particles or stardust flows upwards and outwards, creating a sense of movement and energy. The overall lighting is warm and focused on the woman and her book.
